Featuring Pat Miller

Pat Miller is an author, storyteller, presenter and former school librarian from Richmond, Texas. Her books for children include Squirrel's New Year's Resolution, Substitute Groundhog, and We're Going on a Book Hunt. Pat's Library Monkeys is published on large cards with the illustration to share with group. Her works include learning activities and guides for librarians and teachers alike. Pat is a frequent conference and workshop presenter, most recently presenting at the 2011 American Association of School Librarian's National Conference, Turning the Page, in Minneapolis, MN.

Pat Miller's Luncheon Presentation

Between a Rock and a Hard Place: You Want Me to Do What?!

Description: Budget crunches forced districts to cut into the muscle of curricular programs including the library. Libraries that remain open have less staff, less money, and less time to do more than ever before. How does one survive and thrive in such difficult times?

Please make checks payable to Oklahoma Association of School Librarians and send the form below and your check for $27.00 to:
